Dear parents,
At CHPS we are using positive language when we speak to children. It takes practice but well worth doing. Try changing your language to include more positive statements. EVERYONE FEELS BETTER!!!

Start Using
POSITIVE LANGUAGE
With Your Kids Today

No hitting	→	Keep your hands to yourself, please
I can't hear you	→	Please speak more loudly/clearly
Don't get upset	→	It's okay to feel that way, but ____
No running	→	Walk, please
Don't hit	→	Touch gently
Stop yelling	→	Inside voices, please

Instead of focusing on the negative or on what didn't go so well each day – Focus on what went well.

For me today.

1. I had a had a enjoyable time in Grade 1/2B during their Literacy session
2. I learnt a lot from the Police Person who came out to talk to the Grade 5/6s about keeping safe online.
3. I got to work really early and got work done before the students or teachers arrived.
- 4.

Parents try this yourself, especially if you have had a bad day. Before you go to sleep think of 3 things that went well – it puts you into a positive mindset. GIVE IT A GO!

Get your children to do it too, just before bed time.
